The Circuit Writer NEWSLETTER

*For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve,
and to give his life as a ransom for many.
Mark 10:45, NIV*

Hello, beloved. Greetings of grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. On the last Sunday of September, I spoke about being blessed by God by serving others. We have a tendency, because of our sinful nature, to convince ourselves that serving ourselves is what is best and will make us happy. However, as Christians, we are called to live differently. We are called to go against the sinful nature of this world, but how do we do this? We do this by fixing our eyes upon Jesus and serving others like Jesus did. He is our perfect example of service towards others. He came into this world to serve, not to be served.

Jesus served in love. Paul tells us in Galatians 5:13, "You, my brothers, and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love." Serving others involves more than just our actions. It involves our hearts and attitudes towards each other WHILE we are serving. Again, it involves love. Jesus served with true humility and love while he helped people from different backgrounds and social standings. He did not serve begrudgingly. So, neither should we.

We are to serve with honor and respect. We should treat each other how we want to be treated. Bottom line is that our actions and our words should reflect Christ and how He loves.

Over the next few months, we will have opportunities to serve with love and kindness in our various churches. How will you step up and serve for your church? Where will you give your gifts and talents to benefit the kingdom of God here within our cooperative parish?

I am excited to find out, and I am excited to show our communities that we are here for them. Always remember that Jesus loves you and so do I.

MISSION & OUTREACH OPPORTUNITIES

Supporting Our Neighbors

MarshallUMC will be partnering with NFAC (Northern Fauquier Assistance Coalition) this year to provide a day of thanksgiving meal pick-ups on November 19. We will host drop offs on the 17th and a packing day on the 18th. More information will be going out later in October but this is a heads-up as we will also ask for some helpers on that Friday and Saturday. This group is very responsive to food needs in our area so there is sure to be LOTS of food and plenty of help. We appreciate everyone who will join in the effort as hopefully this will bring new folks our way at MarshallUMC as we seek to serve those in our local community!

READING & REFLECTION

An article for MarshallUMC from the Administrative Council: Changes are coming the United Methodist Church!

Greetings from the Council. The United Methodist Church is expected to vote on numerous issues at the 2024 General Conference. The extent of the changes are not known at this time, but one of the most impactful topics will be the social acceptance of homosexuality.

The following paragraphs are excerpts from the UMC Webpage:

What is the Church's position on homosexuality? \(umc.org\)

"Underlying this is the constitutional principle of inclusiveness of the church. Everyone is welcome to worship and actively participate in the life of our churches. Laypersons may become members and live out their faith through their local church without respect to sexual orientation or practice.

Homosexuality was first openly debated at General Conference in 1972, four years after the formation of The United Methodist Church, resulting in the addition of first statement on homosexuality. While affirming belief that persons of homosexual orientation are persons of sacred worth who need the ministry and guidance of the church, the statement added that the church "does not condone the practice of homosexuality and considers this practice incompatible with Christian teaching." [Timeline: <https://www.umnews.org/en/news/qc2016-tackling-44-year-stance-on-homosexuality>]

Since that time, the church has maintained the position that "the practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching." This draws a distinction between orientation and practice, or behavior. Sexual relations are affirmed only within the covenant of monogamous, heterosexual marriage. The United Methodist Church supports laws that define marriage as the union of one man and one woman.

Based on these positions about homosexual practice and marriage, the Church has also maintained restrictions regarding clergy. Pastors may not be "self-avowed, practicing homosexuals" and may not conduct ceremonies that celebrate same-sex weddings or unions. Such ceremonies also may not be held on church property.

With a body of over 12 million members globally, United Methodists are not of one mind about how to be in ministry with lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer people.

Some members feel strongly that the church should uphold its current stances regarding gay clergy and marriage. Others strongly advocate for inclusion of LGBTQ Christians in all aspects of life in the church.

The impasse over homosexuality has led to uncertainty about the Church's future. Calls for separating the denomination have increased. The delay of the 2020 General Conference to 2024, caused by the pandemic and the difficulty it created to obtain visas for many delegates, has led to one of these groups, the Wesleyan Covenant Association, to announce it would launch a new denomination (the Global Methodist Church) beginning on May 1, 2022. At the present time (late August 2022), around 470 congregations in the United States (of over 30,000, so just under 1.6%) have completed a disaffiliation process as of 2019. It is unknown which or how many of these may have joined the GMC.

When the next General Conference can convene, however, it will address multiple legislative proposals to alter existing church policies (in both more exclusive and more inclusive directions) and to divide or restructure the denomination as a result of differences on these and other issues. There is no way to predict at this time how that General Conference may respond to proposals related to restructure or separation. Based on what is known about the delegation, however, it seems unlikely that the current policies regarding human sexuality will be substantially altered."

Impact to MarshallUMC

All that being said, the United Methodist Church may likely become more progressive and allow practicing homosexual pastors and conduct ceremonies that celebrate same-sex weddings or unions.

Churches that wish to remain “traditional” would disaffiliate from the UMC. These churches would have the option to join the Global Methodist Church (GMC) or become an independent church. Note: Disaffiliation with the UMC comes with a substantial financial cost.

Marshall UMC will have the opportunity to decide our future. Will we be a traditional church? Will we be a progressive church? If we stayed with the UMC, would anything change at MarshallUMC?

No decision has to be made now, but the Council would like to engage the congregation in the discussion. Please feel free to speak to a council member or Pastor John about this topic. When the time comes, everyone will have the opportunity to attend the meeting, cast a vote, and help determine the direction of MarshallUMC.

We will provide monthly updates to you through the newsletter.

Your brother in Christ,

Bob Lambert

Council Chair

You may wish to make your own list of pros and cons of staying with or disaffiliating from the UMC.

For example, here are some thoughts on the option to stay with United Methodist Church (not to disaffiliate):

Advantages (Pros)	Disadvantages (Cons)
Stay with our heritage and history of what we have been as a UMC	Lose our identity in the community
Keep our current pastor (for now)	After general conference decision of 2024 , it may change the book of discipline and we may receive a non-traditional pastor
Use our money for service and outreach versus to disaffiliate	If we wait until after the general conference decision to “leave,” we will lose our church, parsonage and our money (but not our relationships with God and each other)
UMC is a known organization	Global UM is new and pastor assignment is unknown
Our Marshall community needs us and we need them	It may be inevitable that we lose membership regardless of our decision

Thanks all!
